Simplification of Tax Laws

14. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH:
SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to simplify the tax laws to make them more user friendly;

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard;

(c) whether Government have reviewed the accountability of assessing officers along with the simplification of tax laws in the post-reform period and if so, what are the details in this regard; and

(d) to what extent there has been an increase in revenue collection attributed to the improved administrative machinery and better tax compliance during each of the last three years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) and (b) Simplification of tax laws to make them more user-friendly is an ongoing process. Efforts are continously made to simplify the tax laws, subject to revenue constraints.

(c) Accountability has been included as a 'Key Result Area' in the Action Plan for the financial year 1995-96.

(d) It is not possible to quantify the increase in revenue collection on account of improved administrative machinery and better tax compliance. However, the data of tax collection during the last three years show an upward trend.
